

An illustration of a young boy with brown hair, wearing a white shirt and green shorts, standing with his hands on his hips. Above him, a person is sleeping under a large, olive-green umbrella. The umbrella has the Japanese text '節電中です' (Saving electricity) written on it. The sleeping person's face is visible, with closed eyes and a small 'Zzz...' sound effect next to it. The umbrella has a black handle with a yellow tassel.
